JIM GORDON CHANNELING

Jim and John About Events of 3/25/88

March 26, 1988

John Well, yesterday was a very significant day because where I was. Biofeedback yesterday was actually a day of a tremendous breakthrough. I don't know how much you're aware of what biofeedback really does, but biofeedback is dealing totally with the alpha wave lengths.

Jim Uh-hmm.

Jim Alpha typically is when you break through to the Holy Spirit. That's when alpha is highest.

Jim Right.

John Yesterday there was a spirit that moved everybody on the— Where we were working, and just a tremendous awareness that came in, and everybody there was just – We just sat there and experienced it, the energy coming in for that. It defies description, the strength of energy that came in yesterday. The bio that we— At Canyon Ranch is almost in line of sight of the property here.

Jim Yeah, I know. Isn't that amazing?

John Yeah.

Jim You know, I wouldn't be surprised if the lay line and spirituality of that, a long time ago on your property, doesn't somehow line up with that.

John I think it does, simply because the whole concept of that ranch is along the mindset problem.

Jim I'm sure that that's just got to be all aligned with that same flow of consciousness in that property.

John Absolutely. And the very fact that it was established by Jim Hunt.

Jim Uh-hmm.

John Jim Hunt actually represents this whole electronic concept of the New Age, and comes out of the Foundation (inaudible).

Jim Right.

John Everything is there. And Canyon Ranch was built around the biofeedback situation. We're going to go ahead and develop quite a medical center there, a whole New Age medical center.

Jim That's great.

John It's really going to be quite a development. Yesterday was really a (inaudible) day.

Jim Wow. Well, you know, from what I saw, I knew that it was a major change, a major structure change in the energy flow for both of us, as well as for the Foundation. And then what you had, independent of that, is saying the same thing. I mean, you experienced the same thing.

John Right, right.

Jim And the change in the energy in your life, and how it's also affecting others.

John Actually when you were here doing the tapes, practically all of this is on the tapes. At that time, you said you and I were actually one in the light.

Jim I'm be darned.

John The Inner Light Ministry and its function, as well as the Foundation, would be almost totally guided by the energy force that comes through us. You went on to explain that actually, what they need on the face of the planet is a physical transmitter. There are wave forms. As they come through, there they are amplified and redirected through us, and from us out to the world. So, we actually are one of the focal points to the world. Of course, the Foundation is the instrumentality by which an awful lot of this will be accomplished.

Jim Wow, that's great. That really explains a lot then, you know, in yet a greater term of what I got yesterday.

John Yeah, it does. They used the whole analogy of the broadcasting background that I had been in.

Jim Golly.

John Even to the extent that where our own physical beings are just simply neurotransmitters. They receive it and amplify the energy, and retransmit it out to the world. That's quite in alignment. Like I said to you, they use March 25th as the anniversary date to establish it.

Jim Yeah, they really did. It was just tremendous. It was like they were giving a present, a gift. It wasn't even till last night that I thought, Gosh, I bet that's Spirit's gift to John for his birthday.

John Yeah.

Jim It was just amazing. So, it's going to be wonderful now to see what takes place, with the change in focus and all with the Foundation.

John Absolutely. The biofeedback training was supposed to end yesterday; and as a result of yesterday, they canceled all their plans, and I'm on my way over there now for another day of it today. And they're going to do the same thing tomorrow. They're going to have two more days on it.

Jim My gosh. Something really did happen. That's great.

John So you have to take that sooner or later, Jim.

Jim I plan to. That sounds— That would really be a neat experience. Well, maybe the next time that you're out there, I could even just spend some time and go over and do that, too.

John Yeah, sure. That'd be great.

Jim Very good.

John That's just great, Jim.

Jim Well, I'll let you get on with your day. I've got a counseling to get to now. Oh, gosh, yeah, they're going to be calling.

John Be sure to kind of record that.

Jim Okay, I just started recording what we were talking about. What I'm going to do now is I'll add it onto it, and then I'll send you the tape.

John All right.

Jim Okay.

John Good deal. Take care now. God bless.

Jim You, too. Bye-bye.

(Tape Break)

Jim Okay, John. What I was saying was— And I'll go ahead and on this on to the end of this tape, and then send it to you. Yesterday when I was in meditation, Michael and John came forward in meditation, and they both held out candles and they took and merged the two things into one, and said, "This is how it was when you and I had met." There was like two things coming together to form a greater flame, and that that greater flame then became a consciousness, and a light of the Foundation. This had been the light of the Foundation up until the present, this light yesterday, March 25th of '88.

Then I saw the flame and in a sense engulf the Foundation and become the flame or the light of the Foundation. John said to me then, he said, "This light is the light that is shared as consciousness into the world, and it gives light in the darkness, and it gives warmth where there is coldness or hardness. The flame as this is, with its brilliance and its warmth, can only do so much. But with the grace and the presence of the Holy Spirit in it, it can do yet greater things."

Then I saw Michael and John bend down and they began to blow on the flame that had been our flames coming together and merging as one, and then becoming a flame of the Foundation. At first I thought that the flame was going to go out, because as they breathed on it, it flickered and wavered a little bit; but then all of a sudden it was like adding oxygen to a flame. But it intensified, and became like a flame of a Bunsen burner or a blow torch, a real intense flame, a very forceful flame.

Then John stood up and he said, "Now, with the addition of the presence of the Holy Spirit, the Holy breath involved in this flame, the flame is intensified and gives out a greater light, gives a greater brilliance, and it also gives a greater heat. But it does one other thing that the other flame, the former flame, could not do, and that is that the flame is very focused, and is able to bring about greater change. Just as a blow torch can cut through metal, so, too, now this flame can cut through consciousness and create conscious change in the world."

"This flame of the Foundation that is receiving now the breath of the Holy Spirit, and its light and its flame of consciousness, will be able to go into the world and truly create and manifest change in the consciousness, as well as in the physical world, as in matter. Then Michael stood up and said that "the breath of the Holy Spirit would always be present within this flame, so long as you and I focus it that way; that it would not be affected by those involved in the flame or in the consciousness of the Foundation or the building, because they are not the ones who brought the light to it."

“They were not the ones that merged together into oneness to create the flame in the first place. Therefore, they are not going to have an influence. Rather the flame is going to influence them.” And that it was for you and for me to hold the focus of the Holy Spirit being present in the activity of the flame of the work, the consciousness of the Foundation, and that that would maintain the flow of the Holy Spirit into the flame, flow into the consciousness of the Foundation, and keep it intensified in this way.

Then he said, “Where two or more are gathered together in my name, there also am I.” So, Michael said you and I are two gathered together, and Michael and John are two gathered together on the other side; and together, as the one consciousness of allowing ourselves to be vehicles through which Spirit can focus itself into reality, such as the Foundation, the Holy Spirit then has a vehicle by which to intensify the reality of the flame of consciousness that the Foundation is. I guess that was about it, so I’ll get this off to you in the mail right away, so that you’ll have this. Talk to you later and God bless.
